Tuesday 12th March 2024

9:00am-3:30pm, La Mon Hotel

The Food Standards Agency in partnership with the Department of Health, the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs and Invest NI invite you attend our first Healthier & More Sustainable Vending Showcase Event.

WHERE

La Mon Hotel & Country Club,
Castlereagh, Belfast,
BT23 5RF

WHEN

Tuesday 12th March 2024
9.00am – 3.30pm

WHY ATTEND

This event will highlight the importance of adopting healthier and more sustainable vending and show how this can be delivered.

Hear expert speaker insights from vending industry and government – The Food Standards Agency, Vending and Automated Retail Association (AVA), Public Health Agency and Coca-Cola HBC amongst others will outline developments in their sectors and provide case studies of positive change.

Explore new innovations in healthier and more sustainable vending – meet with our exhibitors who will showcase products that meet current nutritional standards and offer innovative solutions to providing healthier and more sustainable vending.

Network with like-minded procurement teams - from public and private sectors and discuss vending business opportunities that can improve public health and enhance sustainability for all.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Vending operators and suppliers of snacks and drinks or micro markets in NI.
- Local council and public sector procurement teams with a commitment to sustainability and public health initiatives.
- Any business or organisation providing vending for customers or staff in NI.
